RIVER.—The weather yesterday was warm and cloudy, with a heavy thun-der storm in the afternoon. Business on the landing for the past two days, has been quite brisk. The arrivals were the New State, from Parkersburg; the J. S. Hall, from Gallipolis; the Nevada, for Pittsburgh.

Departed,—Revenue, for Parkersburg

J. S. Hall, for Pittsburgh, and Nerada, for St. Louis. The river is falling with twelve feet in the channel.

Run Orv.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Henry Daub's team became frightened and run away with the beer wagon to which they were attached. The beer with which the wagon was loaded, wa said that a number of persons in North Wheeling expressed their willingness to take care of a keg or two. The wagon was considerably damaged.

FEDERAL COURT.—The Court yesterday gave its decision in the case of Berger & Hoffman against the steamer Oil

PURITY.-We have been requested to aggest to the citizens and city author ities a free use of quick lime in such localities as need purification. As the work of cleaning has been commenced let it be thorough and complete, neither should it be delayed until pestilene makes its appearance in our city.
